Christian Education for Children on the Autistic Spectrum

History of the Program:

The Presbyterian Church at Shrewsbury began a special Christian Education program for children on the Autistic Spectrum in 2012. Children with special needs were able to participate in learning the basics of the Christian Faith in a safe and caring environment suited to meet their special needs.

The program is funded by a grant from the PCUSA: Monmouth Presbytery and The Presbyterian Church at Shrewsbury

About the Program:

- For ages 3 - 21
- The program runs from September through June during Sunday Worship beginning at 10:30am
- Christian program developed to meet the individual needs of the child

For more information please complete the attached application and contact the Director of Christian Education, Sherri Adler at: avashe@aol.com or 732-747-3557 to schedule an appointment to gather more information.
